Reflection

Sometimes people can say or do something that hurts very deeply. It makes us speechless. We cannot believe what has happened.

Days and weeks can pass and it still bothers us. We think about it and can't seem to clear it from our thoughts. Therefore, we have a restless night.

We may decide to talk to the other person about it and tell them how much we hurt. The answer is to say NOTHING. JUST FORGIVE.

We all do and say things at time that hurt someone. We need forgiveness and we need to be able to forgive. Let us all pray for those who hurt us and ask God to give us the Grace to forgive them. Forgiving them gives us relief from our hurt.

God knows He has to forgive us a lot.
